

Intellectual Property Contract

Project: Grizzly Path

Course: Software Development II – Georgia Gwinnett College

Date: November 15, 2025

This Intellectual Property (IP) Contract is created for the purposes of a class assignment in the Software Development course at Georgia Gwinnett College. This document is NOT legally binding, and all parties involved acknowledge that this contract is for educational purposes only.

Intellectual Property Terms

- 1. Owner of the Software: All contributors listed in this document share ownership of the project and all materials created for the project—including source code, documentation, designs, databases, and digital assets according to the percentages shown in the Ownership Distribution Table. No single member has exclusive ownership of any part of the project. Any change in ownership or redistribution of rights must be agreed upon by all contributors.
- 2. Rights and Usage: This project is for classroom, educational, and portfolio use only. The software may not be sold, distributed commercially, or used for any profit without the written consent of owners. Team members and clients may present the project in presentations, portfolios, assignments, or demos, as long as all contributors are clearly credited. Any outside use outside of educational purposes requires the full consent of all listed stakeholders.
